

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3179 - SB 3259

February 27, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases, from two to three months, the length of time a probationer or parolee can remain in arrears on supervision and rehabilitation contributions before the arrearage constitutes sufficient grounds to revoke probation, parole, or release.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- According to the Board of Probation and Parole, its officers do not file violation reports and warrants against offenders solely for fee arrearages. No fiscal impact to the Board or to state or local government.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
